Highway Safety QUIZ

? When is a motorist required to stop for a school bus?

According to the Code of Virginia, all drivers must come to a complete stop when approaching a school bus from any direction while it is loading or unloading children. This includes private as well as public buses which are properly marked and posted with school bus yellow. On undivided highways or streets, all vehicles are required to stop and remain so until all children are clear of the road and the bus is again in motion. On divided highways or streets, vehicles in all lanes traveling in the same direction as the bus must come to a complete stop, but vehicles traveling in an opposite direction and separated by either a physical barrier or an unpaved area may proceed without stopping.

Appomattox County Library

This winter season is a good time of year to read stories which inspire us about people with a mission in life: such as a new biograpy of George Washington Carver: The Man Who Overcame by Lawrence Elliott. As I closed this book after reading it almost nonstop I said to myself, I am grateful I know how to read so that I did not miss such a story. Much has been written about Mr. Carver but my impression is of a person who was like water coming down a mountain - - no matter what obstacle was in his way he kept right on moving and as he moved all he touched benefited. Carver said,"I use chemistry in exactly the same way that a housewife uses a cookstove. It is only a tool to get the job done." And Mr. Elliott says," . . . and the job he meant to get done was a lessening of human want." "I believe the Creator has put ores and oil on this earth to give us a breathing spell," Carver said, "As we exhaust them, we must be prepared to fall back on our farms, which is God's true storehouse and can never be exhausted. For we can learn to synthesize materials for every human need from the things that grow." Mr. Elliott says, "there are those who feel that this sweeping concept, even yet not fully realized, was Carver's most important gift to humankind."

Another missionary in our own country whose mission is going out to all the world is told in Bokotola by Millard Huffard quote from the words of Millard Fuller on the back cover: "This is a story of building houses for poor people . . . in south Georgia, U.S.A. and in Africa. It is a telling of how new communities came into existence and how they fired people with hope and faith . . . This is also a true story of sadness and joy, separation and reconciliation, defeat and victory . . . It is a tale about God and how He enters situations in life and changes them . . . and changes the people as well . . . you will sense the drama . . . and that you will praise God with me for what has happened and is happening. (I loaned this book to Mrs. J. O. Carson to read and it was one of the last books she read before she died and both she and her daughter could not put it down either until they had finished it. (M.J.H.)

Helping children overcome learning difficulties by Jerome Hoomer is simply written and easily understood. It could be well utilized by a committee of the Parent Teachers Association as they attempt to tutor children who need some remedial care or by any parent who wonders how they can help their child by first identifying his problem.

The regular meeting of The Friends of the Library scheduled for January 16 was cancelled due to the weather. Watch for the notice of this important meeting in February.

Special Services Presented At Galilee Sunday

An appreciative crowd of members, visitors, and friends, attended the special service presented at the Galilee Baptist Church last Sunday evening at 3 P.M. by the Third Liberty Baptist Church of New Canton, Va. The service was sponsored by the Galilee Junior Choir under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Stevens. The service was conducted by the pastor, deacons and choir of the church. The presentation of the guest speaker was given by Mrs. Stevens who also gave words of welcome to all the visitors and friends. The pastor, Rev. R. Q. Lawing, Jr., delivered a very inspiring sermon on the theme: "Kicking Against The Pricks". The message was well delivered and enjoyed by all present. The offering was lifted by officers of the visiting church, deacons Bland and Scruggs. The pastor of the church gave remarks and extended special thanks to the guest. Remarks were also given by the Rev. Raymond Turner, pastor of the St. Mark Baptist Church of Amherst, Va.

The morning service at the Galilee Baptist Church was enjoyed by all who came out. The senior choir rendered beautiful music. The pastor of the church delivered a very helpful message on the themes: "The Pathway To Personal Peace."

Local churches are reminded of the planning meeting of the Pre-Holy week service first Sunday evening at 3 p.m. at the Mount Airy Baptist Church.
